Nov. 14, 1883.

EDITOR SOUTH KENTUCKIAN: For two weeks past our community, which is usually so quiet, has been in continued motion and excitement attending a protracted meeting at Little River, conducted by Revs. Barrow, Malone and Hanberry. Rev. Malone preached his farewell sermon to his congregation Sunday night, and started for his home Tuesday in Franklin, Ky. And may he live long to preach that glorious gospel GOOD NEW DWELLING, which he so delightfully and eloquently expounded while with us. The kind wishes of this community go with him through life.
